DEFENDANTS' RESPONSE TO PLAINTIFFS SHAUN ROSE AND MARK GEROULO'S SUPERSEDING MOTION FOR CONSOLIDATION

Thirteen purported ERISA class actions arising out of the same alleged operative facts concerning Citigroup's mortgage securitization business are currently pending in the Southern District of New York.¹ As the Court is aware, two motions for consolidation (by plaintiffs Gray, Tadros and Bolla and by plaintiff Goldstein) were previously filed. Defendants responded to those motions on December 13, 2007 (the

¹ Since the Court's December 19, 2007 Order, one additional ERISA action was filed: Brick v. Citigroup Inc., et al., No. 07 Civ. 11369. Consistent with the December 19 Order, the caption above reflects that all the cases (except Brick) are now pending before Judge Stein, even though the dockets in several of these cases do not yet reflect assignment to Judge Stein.

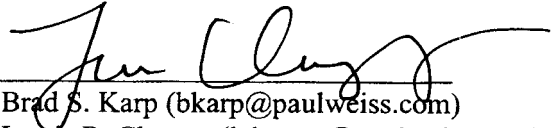

“December 13 Response”). Since that response, plaintiffs Rose and Geroulo filed a motion for consolidation and then a superseding motion for consolidation. Pursuant to the Court’s December 19, 2007 Order, Defendants respectfully submit this response to that motion.

Defendants incorporate all arguments made in the December 13 Response.² In particular, Defendants agree that all of the currently pending ERISA actions and any subsequently filed ERISA actions should be consolidated before Judge Stein. Defendants continue to take no position on the various requests for appointment of interim lead plaintiffs and interim lead counsel.

² As discussed in the December 13 Response, defendants continue to reserve any and all defenses, objections or arguments, including, but not limited to, lack of personal jurisdiction, improper venue, lack or insufficiency of process, or lack or insufficiency of service of process.
